Pesticide Container Collection Kicks Off at Stanton Ag in Marion, NY

What:

With the support of the Ag Container Recycling Council (ACRC), the New York State Agribusiness Association (NYSABA) will launch its first statewide ag pesticide container collection. Twenty agricultural dealers from across the state and Vermont have volunteered to collect, triple-rinse, tag, bag and store their non-refillable high density polyethylene containers for this recycling effort.

Where:

Stanton Ag Service Inc
3993 North Main Street,
Marion, New York 14505

When:

October 13, 2008
10 am

For more information, contact Jeanette Marvin (315) 986-9320 at the New York State Agribusiness Association, or Ron Perkins at the Ag Container Recycling Council (877-952-2272).
